From the Green Team

“Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether [they be] thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead...”(Colossians 1:15-18)

Easter is a time to rejoice and, like many Christians before us, we may contemplate nature and know that it rejoices with us! Christ makes all things new since He makes us part of His body today, for our time. If we have any doubts about whether our environmental behaviour is consistent with our faith, we need to ask ourselves: What would Jesus do? Or better yet: What does Jesus do through us? Happy Easter!
