Readings for the day – Genesis 1:24 - 2:4 - And God said, ‘Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.’ And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, ‘Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.’ So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, ‘Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.’ God said, ‘See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.’ And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

Psalm 65: 5-14

By awesome deeds you answer us with deliverance, O God of our salvation; you are the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas. By your strength you established the mountains; you are girded with might. You silence the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, the tumult of the peoples. Those who live at earth’s farthest bounds are awed by your signs; you make the gateways of the morning and the evening shout for joy. You visit the earth and water it, you greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water; you provide the people with grain, for so you have prepared it. You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges, softening it with showers, and blessing its growth. You crown the year with your bounty; your wagon tracks overflow with richness. The pastures of the wilderness overflow, the hills gird themselves with joy, the meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy.

If you have an emergency and would like to speak to a minister please call the Reverend Douglas Michael 705-441-1199. If you would like to speak to a member of the pastoral care team please call Moira Southwell 705-441-2728.

We will be trying some online gatherings together. If you would like to be part of a co-ordinated parish online social, please email allsaintschurch@bmts.com or phone 705-445-3841 Nancy at the church office with your email address and an approximate day and time that would be convenient for you. We'll be using Zoom, which is free and relatively easy. Structured Zoom meetings with thirty or more people work quite well. But for social gatherings, which involve more chatting, fewer people are better. So we'll be working out a schedule of online chats, which is why it would be helpful to know an approximate best day and time for everyone. The sooner Nancy can get an invitation list together, the sooner we can start... so RSVP and let's see what happens!

The power of technology is amazing and Keiko is conducting ukulele rehearsals on-line. Now she would like to invite more people to join the group. "Ukulele Challenge" is this new group of beginners. For more information please contact Keiko at keikokuepfer@gmail.com Keiko is also interested in trying a hymn sing session on- line. To join this group you would need an email address and an account with Zoom (free of cost)...for more information please contact Keiko at the above email address.

From the Green Team

“And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what comparison shall we compare it? [It is} like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth: But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it” (Mark 4:30-32)

The return of migratory birds is a rite of spring, and many people think about filling up their bird feeders for the upcoming summer season. For the birds' welfare (and your birdwatching pleasure), follow these few tips: thoroughly clean the feeder and bird seed bath occasionally; give them good birdseed (with no mildew or expired) and do not place feeders close to your window, since birds may accidentally hit the glass. If the birdhouse is empty, clean it out. New tenants may be arriving soon. Finally, learn to identify species and show them to young children. Creation is full of wonders!
