Reading for the day

1 Peter 2:2-10 - Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture: "See, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame." To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner," and "A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Psalm 31:1-5, 15-16

Refrain

Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

In you, O Lord, have I taken refuge; let me never be put to shame; deliver me in your righteousness. Incline your ear to me; make haste to deliver me. Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe, for you are my crag and my stronghold; for the sake of your name, lead me and guide me. Take me out of the net that they have secretly set for me, for you are my tower of strength. Into your hands I commend my spirit, for you have redeemed me, O Lord, O God of truth. "My times are in your hand; rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me. Make your face to shine upon your servant, and in your loving kindness save me." R

Moroccan International Dinner Update

At the Vestry meeting this February, the International Dinner Committee had reported that they were planning to hold a “ROAD to MOROCCO” evening on June 13th, in the Parish Hall. That event was to have been similar to the many “International Dinners” of the past several years: a fundraising event, including a Moroccan dinner, entertainment, silent auction, and cash bar. Unfortunately, due to current restrictions, we will not be able to stage that event on that date. It is our hope to be able to do so later in the year, as we are all anxious to get together and enjoy each other’s company, and support our beautiful Church at the same time. Until we can get together, we pray that we may all enjoy good health, and good cheer!

We will be trying some online gatherings together. If you would like to be part of a co-ordinated parish online social, please email allsaintschurch@bmts.com or phone 705-445-3841 Nancy at the church office with your email address and an approximate day and time that would be convenient for you. We'll be using Zoom, which is free and relatively easy. Structured Zoom meetings with thirty or more people work quite well. But for social gatherings, which involve more chatting, fewer people are better. So we'll be working out a schedule of online chats, which is why it would be helpful to know an approximate best day and time for everyone. The sooner Nancy can get an invitation list together, the sooner we can start... so RSVP and let's see what happens!

The power of technology is amazing and Keiko is conducting ukulele rehearsals on-line. Now she would like to invite more people to join the group. "Ukulele Challenge" is this new group of beginners. For more information please contact Keiko at keikokuepfer@gmail.com Keiko is also interested in trying a hymn sing session on- line. To join this group you would need an email address and an account with Zoom (free of cost)....for more information please contact Keiko at the above email address.

From the Green Team

"For the labourer is worthy of his hire". (Luke 10:7)

At the beginning of May, there are flowers, the weather is warmer and it is also time for the Fair Trade Fortnight. Fair Trade allows southern farmers and farm workers to receive a fair salary. When they enjoy better living conditions, families may avail themselves of health services and send their children to school (rather than keeping them on the farm from a very young age). The leading products are Fair Trade coffee and chocolate, but there are also teas, rice, spices and bananas. Look for the "Fair Trade" logo and encourage a fair business in the name of the God who loves justice.

Community Friendship Dinner, Wednesday May 13th, 2020, Pick Up 5pm – 6pm, Take-Out Menu Stew, Rice, Salad, Dinner Roll, Dessert donated by "Bad Vegan", Pre Order Only by Tuesday May 14th, please email Susan Scouten at sscouten1@gmail.com Or Call the Church Office 705-445-3841, Non Contact Delivery Available!

Thank You

We are thankful for the wonderful dinners that have been delivered by Ron Emo to our home in Wasaga Beach. We greatly appreciate the generosity of those who provided the food and of those who donated their time and talents to prepare such delicious and nutritious meals. God bless you all. Susan and Barry Robertson.
