Readings for the day – Revelation 7:9-17

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!” And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.” Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” 14 I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Psalm 23

Refrain

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not be in want. He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters. He revives my soul and guides me along right pathways for his name's sake. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup is running over. Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. R

If you have an emergency and would like to speak to a minister please call the Reverend Douglas Michael 705-441-1199. If you would like to speak to a member of the pastoral care team please call Moira Southwell 705-441-2728.

We will be trying some online gatherings together. If you would like to be part of a co-ordinated parish online social, please email allsaintschurch@bmts.com or phone 705-445-3841 Nancy at the church office with your email address and an approximate day and time that would be convenient for you. We'll be using Zoom, which is free and relatively easy. Structured Zoom meetings with thirty or more people work quite well. But for social gatherings, which involve more chatting, fewer people are better. So we'll be working out a schedule of online chats, which is why it would be helpful to know an approximate best day and time for everyone. The sooner Nancy can get an invitation list together, the sooner we can start... so RSVP and let's see what happens!

The power of technology is amazing and Keiko is conducting ukulele rehearsals on-line. Now she would like to invite more people to join the group. "Ukulele Challenge" is this new group of beginners. For more information please contact Keiko at keikokuepfer@gmail.com Keiko is also interested in trying a hymn sing session on- line. To join this group you would need an email address and an account with Zoom (free of cost)....for more information please contact Keiko at the above email address.

From the Green Team

"He takes care in firing the kiln." (Sir 38:30)

Wanting to keep our homes clean has helped to improve our generation's health, but sometimes we can take things too far. Cleaning products are often more powerful than we require. And perhaps we are guilty of not wanting to use a little elbow grease. Sometimes we'd rather have a product that works like magic, but at what cost? Dangerous products: no thanks!

Three products are particularly bad for the environment; oven cleaners, toilet bowl cleaners and drain cleaners. Use vinegar, baking soda and hot water for these cleaning challenges. Look for environmentally-friendly cleaning products. You'll breathe easier and you won't be putting anything harmful into the environment.

Thank You

I want to thank the parishioners that gave so generously to the recent “New kitchenware” party we had recently. We were able to update many of the items in the church kitchen. The monetary donations made it possible to purchase stainless steel stock pots and a tea urn.

Submitted by Pam Hawkins

We are sending a very special THANK YOU to everyone for all your generosity of time, sharing & efforts in keeping so many people fed with your delicious meals. This is what our faith teaches us. Blessings Marie Phipps-Bunting & Chris Bunting.
