Sunday Worship Resources

Readings for the day – Acts 17:22-31 - Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown God.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him - though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.' Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

Psalm 66:7-18

Refrain

Be joyful in God, all you lands.

Bless our God, you peoples; make the voice of his praise to be heard;
Who holds our souls in life, and will not allow our feet to slip. R

For you, O God, have proved us; you have tried us just as silver is tried. You brought us into the snare; you laid heavy burdens upon our backs. You let enemies ride over our heads; we went through fire and water; but you brought us out into a place of refreshment. R

I will enter your house with burnt offerings and will pay you my vows, which I promised with my lips and spoke with my mouth when I was in trouble. I will offer you sacrifices of fat beasts with the smoke of rams; I will give you oxen and goats.

Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will tell you what he has done for me. I called out to him with my mouth, and his praise was on my tongue. If I had found evil in my heart, the Lord would not have heard me; But in truth God has heard me; he has attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, who has not rejected my prayer, nor withheld his love from me. R

Moroccan International Dinner Update

At the Vestry meeting this February, the International Dinner Committee had reported that they were planning to hold a “ROAD to MOROCCO” evening on June 13th, in the Parish Hall. That event was to have been similar to the many “International Dinners” of the past several years: a fundraising event, including a Moroccan dinner, entertainment, silent auction, and cash bar. Unfortunately, due to current restrictions, we will not be able to stage that event on that date. It is our hope to be able to do so later in the year, as we are all anxious to get together and enjoy each other's company, and support our beautiful Church at the same time. Until we can get together, we pray that we may all enjoy good health, and good cheer!

Online gatherings have started. If you would like to be part of a coordinated parish online social, please email allsaintschurch@bmts.com or phone 705-445-3841 Nancy at the church office with your email address. We'll be using Zoom, which is free and relatively easy.

The power of technology is amazing and Keiko is conducting music rehearsals on-line. Now she would like to invite more people to join Hymn Singing Wednesday mornings at 11am. To join this group you would need an email address and an account with Zoom (free of cost)... for more information please contact Keiko at keikokuepfer@gmail.com

From the Green Team

“Rot and worms, this will be his lot” (Sirach 19:3)

One of the most efficient ways to reduce waste is to compost. Many organizations offer seminars and workshops where we can find out how to go about composting. It's pretty simple: you install a compost or purchase a home compost bin to compost fruit and vegetable residues, tea bags, coffee, egg shells, leaves and all plant and garden waste. Do not compost meat or milk, products as this will generate bad smells and attract vermin. Your compost will save you money because you will no longer need to purchase loam for your plants! For more information, get in touch with your municipality or your local gardening centre.
