Reading for the day

Acts 1:6-14 - So when they had come together, the apostles asked Jesus, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?" He replied, "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven." Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Psalm 68:1-10, 33-36

Refrain

Exalt him who rides upon the heavens.

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered; let those who hate him flee before him. Let them vanish like smoke when the wind drives it away; as the wax melts at the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God; let them also be merry and joyful. Sing to God, sing praises to his name; exalt him who rides upon the heavens; YAHWEH is his name, rejoice before him! R
Father of orphans, defender of widows, God in his holy habitation!
God gives the solitary a home and brings forth prisoners into freedom; but the rebels shall live in dry places.

O God, when you went forth before your people, when you marched through the wilderness, The earth shook, and the skies poured down rain, at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

You sent a gracious rain, O God, upon your inheritance; you refreshed the land when it was weary. Your people found their home in it; in your goodness, O God, you have made provision for the poor.

Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth; sing praises to the Lord. He rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens; he sends forth his voice, his mighty voice. Ascribe power to God; his majesty is over Israel; his strength is in the skies. How wonderful is God in his holy places! the God of Israel giving strength and power to his people! Blessed be God! R

Now it's time for you to have a turn.

A few parishioners saw me today and have already pre-ordered. Just call the church 705-445-3841 and Nancy will be happy to take your order or email Susan at sscouten1@gmail.com and she will put your name on the list. This will be a take-out dinner as we still can't have a sit down church dinner at this time. Pick up your special dinner between 5pm and 6pm on Wednesday May 27th.

The Friendship Community Take-Out Dinner for next week is being hosted by Trinity United., so they are being looked after by the volunteers at Trinity United.

Non-contact delivery is available upon request. All orders must be in by Tuesday May 26th, so Susan knows how much chili to cook. There is no-charge for this meal. This meal is a thank you to you for all your support over the past several weeks.

Thanks so much

From the Green Team

“Two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.”
(Genesis 6:20)

Imagine all the animals coming toward you, for you take care of them: mammals, birds, amphibians, reptiles, insects... This is God's call to you today. Did you know that along side the St. Lawrence river, 80% of all the wetlands have disappeared, six animal species are extinct (including the giant penguin and the passenger pigeon), and 76 animal species are currently on the endangered list (including the beluga whale and the peregrine falcon)?

Our members of parliament are responsible for the survival of wetlands and ecosystems. Is there a river, a wooded area or wetland which needs our protection so that it can be enjoyed by future generations? If there is a petition concerning this, do not hesitate to sign it and circulate it to other people since we must care for biodiversity, just as Noah did!

Happy Biodiversity Day (May 22)!
