Readings for the day

Matthew 9:35-10:8 - Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest." Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

Psalm 116:1, 10-17

Refrain

I will lift up the cup of salvation.

I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

How shall I repay the Lord for all the good things he has done for me?

I will lift up the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord. R

I will fulfil my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his servants. R

O Lord, I am your servant; I am your servant and the child of your handmaid; you have freed me from my bonds. I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call upon the name of the Lord. R

I will fulfil my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

Hallelujah! R

Worship Resources and Announcements/All Saints’ Alive

“Please have articles for the Worship Resources Bulletin and Announcements submitted to the office at allsaintschurch@bmts.com and articles for the All Saints’ Alive Newsletter submitted to John Kirby at john.kirby@rogers.com by Wednesday at 10am”

Online gatherings have started. If you would like to be part of a co-ordinated parish online social, please email allsaintschurch@bmts.com or phone 705-445-3841 Nancy at the church office with your email address. We’ll be using Zoom, which is free and relatively easy.

The power of technology is amazing and Keiko is conducting music rehearsals on-line. Now she would like to invite more people to join Hymn Singing Wednesday mornings at 11am. To join this group you would need an email address and an account with Zoom (free of cost).... for more information please contact Keiko at keikokuepfer@gmail.com

From the Green Team

“Then the Spirit said to Phillip,” Go over to this chariot and join it”.
(Acts 8:29)

In Canada, 28% of greenhouse gas emissions come from transportation. That includes how we get ourselves from place to place. To waste less energy, we have to keep two things in mind: how we drive, and the type of car.

The best way to reduce your gas consumption is by gradually accelerating and braking. Driving with a lead foot demands more power from the engine. On the highway, keep to a speed of 100km/h, because at 120 km/h, you will consume 20% more gas.

If you're shopping for a new car, consider fuel-efficient models, a hybrid car or, ideally an electric car. Electric cars meet the needs of 90% of the population, since people rarely drive more than 100km in a day. And you'll never have to visit a gas station again, because you can plug in your car at home. www.plugndrive.ca

CEMETERY UPDATE

At its AGM on Friday May 22nd, the Board, following a review of prices charged by Collingwood's five other cemeteries, decided to raise our service fees. As of Wednesday July 1st, the price of a single plot will rise from $850 to $1,000. Corner Markers, which are required for each ownership, will go up to $400 per set. The Cemetery continues to struggle financially as plot sales are quite low. The Cemetery Board expresses its gratitude for donations of some $1,710 used to assist with the cost of removing a diseased Ash tree. In addition, despite Vestry approval to move our Perpetual Care funds from the Diocese to RBC Dominion, this is proving to be problematical and will probably not occur and thus we will continue reduced yield. Our new Bylaws are currently under review by the Bereavement Authority of Ontario. The possible sale of part of our Surplus Lands to Home Horizons is as of Tuesday, very much on the back burner. Any parishioners interested in purchasing plots are encouraged to contact

To The People of All Saints'

In his update to the province on Monday 8th June 2020, Premier Doug Ford authorized places of worship to open from this Friday 12th June. While it is good to know that we may now legally open our church buildings for worship, our first priority must remain the welfare of our community.

The Anglican Diocese of Toronto, in partnership with the wider church, is working on a set of guidelines and protocols for all parishes, so that our worship can be shared in a way that is both responsible and safe.

Until those guidelines are published, and until our parish has been able to properly implement them, All Saints' will not be opening for public worship.

We are all eager to be with one another again, and perhaps we now will be sooner rather than later. As we continue to prepare for that day, we will continue to share new information as it is made available to us.

Take Paul's words in Romans 12:12 to heart: Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer.

Fr Doug
