Sunday August 23rd, 2020

Incumbent – The Reverend Douglas Michael

Honourary Assistant – The Reverend Sharon Johnstone

Sunday Worship Resources

Reading for the day – Romans 12:1-8 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God - what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Psalm 124

Refrain

Our help is in the name of the Lord.

If the Lord had not been on our side, let Israel now say; if the Lord had not been on our side, when enemies rose up against us; then would they have swallowed us up alive in their fierce anger toward us; Then would the waters have overwhelmed us and the torrent gone over us; then would the raging waters have gone right over us.

Blessed be the Lord! he has not given us over to be a prey for their teeth. We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler; the snare is broken, and we have escaped. Our help is in the name of the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth. R

From the Green Team

“But the cloth, warp or woof, from which the spot disappears when you have washed it, shall then be washed a second time, and it shall be clean.” (Leviticus 13:58)

A new invention has just hit the market, and it's both ecological and economical. It replaces the dryer during the summer and is more gentle on clothing. It makes clothes smell fresh, like the outdoors. It's called lateral garment suspension...or more commonly known as “the clothesline”. All joking aside, our parents and grandparents have long dried their clothes on a clotheslines.

In addition to the ecological aspects, hanging out your laundry is good exercise for the arms, it's windy, the result is better than ironing. A final tip: you can bring the experience the experience indoors in winter by using a drying rack.

Dear Fellow Parishioners

On behalf of the Wardens of All Saints', we are pleased that services will resume starting Sunday, September 13th at 9:30am and Wednesdays at 10am.

We are looking for willing parishioners to assist with these services. Some, understandably, who have greatly assisted in the past, are waiting for personal safety reasons, before returning to church, and thus our need. If you plan on returning to church, and are willing to assist, then please let us know.

Firstly, we are looking for sidespersons. At each service, we would like one person outside the Elgin Street entrance and second sidesperson will be two pews back from the entrance in the church. Both will provide instructions. There are no other duties as there will be no collection, no going up for communion, no passing out or collecting books, etc...

Secondly, we are working to install a second screen in the church, and we hope that all of the services will be on the screens since no books will be available, and there will be no singing. We are very thankful for the great job Doug Southwell has done in running the computer monthly for our Family Services. Doug will continue to run the computer but we need a willing back up or two for the job.

Finally, if you wish to serve as an acolyte, especially at the Wednesday service, we could also use your assistance. Father Doug or Reverend Sharon will guide you as to your limited duties.

Please contact the office at 705-445-3841 or allsaintschurch@bmts.com if you are able to help with any of the above duties.

Thank you for your continued support during this very challenging time. Please stay safe.
