Sunday Worship Resources

Readings for the day – Matthew 16:21-28 - From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Psalm 105:1-6, 23-26, 45C

Refrain

The Lord has always been mindful of his covenant.

Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his name; make known his deeds among the peoples. Sing to him, sing praises to him, and speak of all his marvellous works. Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

Search for the Lord and his strength; continually seek his face.
Remember the marvels he has done, his wonders and the judgements of his mouth, O offspring of Abraham his servant, O children of Jacob his chosen.

Israel came into Egypt, and Jacob became a sojourner in the land of Ham. The Lord made his people exceedingly fruitful; he made them stronger than their enemies; Whose heart he turned, so that they hated his people, and dealt unjustly with his servants. He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen. Hallelujah! R

From the Green Team

“And the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it”. (Genesis 2:15)

This Scripture is at the heart of Christian ecology. In the beginning, a human being is placed in the Garden of Eden (which means delicacy). As the garden’s farmer, he harvests his environment’s resources and sows it again. As the garden’s keeper, he makes sure that the beauty and fertility of creation will be maintained for the future. Here, at the very beginning of the Holy Scriptures, is the institution of sustainable development!

Many churches throughout the world (Catholic, Orthodox, Protestant) celebrate the Care of Creation Day (September 1). They give thanks to the Lord for the generosity of His creation and pray for the wisdom and courage to tend it well. Have a great Creation Day!
