The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Revelation 7:9-17 - After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen." Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Psalm 34:1-10, 22

Refrain

Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him.

I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall ever be in my mouth. I will glory in the Lord; let the humble hear and rejoice. Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord; let us exalt his name together. I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me out of all my terror. R. Look upon him and be radiant, and let not your faces be ashamed. I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me and saved me from all my troubles. The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, and he will deliver them. Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him! Fear the Lord, you that are his saints, for those who fear him lack nothing. The young lions lack and suffer hunger, but those who seek the Lord lack nothing that is good. The Lord ransoms the life of his servants, and none will be punished who trust in him.

Second Reading

1 John 3:1-3 - See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Priest:       The Lord be with you

All:           And also with you

Priest:       The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew 5:1-12 - When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

All:           Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

At the conclusion of the Gospel....

Priest:       The Gospel of Christ

All:           Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

From the Green Team

“There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.” (John 4:7)

Water is a recurrent theme in the Bible. In our Christian tradition, we use water to baptize. Therefore, it would be appropriate and consistent with our faith to treat water with respect, like a sister. A good way to take care of this precious resource is to avoid drinking bottled water and choose tap water instead. When drinking bottled water, the “energy cost of the life cycle of this bottle is equivalent, on average, to empty a quarter of the contents of this bottle in petroleum.” (Pacific Institute). Let us put an end to this dependency and start drinking the water from our taps for free!

Flower Donations to All Saints' Anglican Church, Collingwood
Diocese of Toronto Amber Stage October 2020

At this stage of opening we are sadly still unable to accept flower donations for the altar. If you had made prior arrangements for dates in the future you should now have been contacted by the flower co-ordinators, Donna Hurst or Rhuna Sandell.

In the meantime we would like to make a recommendation using an enhanced example that was set by one of our dear parishioners.

- In lieu of flowers, you may consider making a donation to the church.
- A slide will be then be prepared and inserted as a part of the service for the screens in the church and for viewers at home.
- This screen will acknowledge you by name as well as the person you are donating in memory of, or otherwise honouring.
- Your donation will also be noted in the on-line bulletin.
- The donation in lieu of flowers will also be cited by the intercessor on duty during the prayers of the people.
- Of course you may choose to donate but opt to not be acknowledged; however, we truly hope that you do not choose to do this.

This solution represents a beautiful idea for loved ones, does not require florists be given access to the church, nor the required follow-up sanitizing nor the dealing with flowers and vases after the service. Father Doug, the Wardens, the Altar Guild and the flower co-ordinators hope that everyone can embrace this new procedure.

Please contact Nancy in the church office: 705 445 3841 or email allsaintschurch@bmts.com she will forward your request to Donna or Rhuna.
