The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Proverbs 31:10-31 - A capable wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She is like the ships of the merchant, she brings her food from far away. She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household and tasks for her servant girls. She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. She girds herself with strength, and makes her arms strong. She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. She opens her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy. She is not afraid for her household when it snows, for all her household are clothed in crimson. She makes herself coverings; her clothing is fine linen and purple. Her husband is known in the city gates, taking his seat among the elders of the land. She makes linen garments and sells them; she supplies the merchant with sashes. Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her happy; her husband too, and he praises her: "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all." Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her a share in the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the city gates.

Psalm 1

Refrain

Happy are they who trust in the Lord.

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats of the scornful! Their delight is in the law of the Lord, and they meditate on his law day and night. They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; everything they do shall prosper. It is not so with the wicked; they are like chaff which the wind blows away. Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgement comes, nor the sinner in the council of the righteous. For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked is doomed. R

Second Reading

James 3:13-4:3, 7-8a - Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace. Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you.

Priest: The Lord be with you

All: And also with you

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Mark 9:30-37 - They went on from there and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again." But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

At the conclusion of the Gospel....

Priest: The Gospel of Christ

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Re-opening All Saints' Collingwood Sept. 19, 2021 9:30

What to Expect

- Please think of this as restarting the covid restricted services we used to have. This is NOT the re-opening we had hoped for. That full re-opening must wait until the Diocese, Public Health and the government give the clearance needed.
- The re-opening of our parish will be very similar to our previous services under COVID restrictions, namely no singing, no choir, no processions or recessions, required masking, social distancing, signing in, pre-registering your attendance.
- At this time there is only one service per week, Sundays at 9:30 am.
- Services will continue to be live-streamed.

- Please call Nancy in the Church Office with your intention to attend the upcoming Sunday service. Call between 9:00 am and 3:00 pm Monday to Thursday. We ask that you only book your attendance for the one up-coming service and not for services in advance of that one.

Church Office: 705- 445-3841

- Those who have not booked can usually be accommodated in the church.
- There is only one unlocked door for entry to services, namely the northern most entry off of Elgin Street.
- The church will open for the 9:30 service at 9:00 am and no earlier. This is because we now know that fresh air is covid's enemy. The wardens will have the high windows open and the fans on high until 9:00 am to ensure the church is as full of fresh air as possible. Once parishioners are inside, fans must be off, because according to COVID rules downward or even sideward blowing fans are not permitted.
- There will no church school at this time. Children are welcome to attend but are required to sit with their parents.
- There will be servers back in attendance to assist with the service and the clearing of the Altar.
- The Diocese of Toronto has provided two revised screening questionnaires. One is for employees, visitors, volunteers and staff (posted just inside the doors at the top of the ramp by the parking lot) and a different one for those attending a service. This one for attending services will be posted in the vestibule entrance off Elgin. Parishioners may also be given a typed version to read for themselves.
- When you "sign" in for the service in the contact tracing log at the back of the church, you are agreeing that you have read and understood the screening questions.
- Exiting the church after the service will be through the west St. Marie doors at the front of the church. Parishioners should proceed from the front of the church to the back. As you exit, please keep social distancing in mind. Do not allow the exit line to get bunched up.
- No refreshments may be served after the service. You may bring your own drinking water to the service if needed.
- For questions, you may call the church or email elainecunningham80@gmail.com
